Emily Nietering

I was given the 5 pieced blocks that someone donated to the Safehouse table a few years ago. I finally decided what to do with them and made a nine-patch with some lovely floral fabric I was given by a friend downsizing her stash.

This pattern is called City Lights from the book Fast and Fun 3-yard Quilts by Donna Robertson. To make a Safehouse-sized quilt from her patterns you need 2 yard pieces of 3 different fabrics.

This quilt was made from the pattern “Totally Triangular” by Linda Johnson. It works great for large-scale prints you can’t bear to cut up. This is the second Safehouse quilt I have made from this pattern.

Gyleen Fitzgerald, Latifah Saafir and Ebony Love offered a 2021 online mystery experience beginning January 1. We started with three weeks of pre-work learning new techniques followed by 6 weeks of challenging sewing. I loved the result but thought I should give the quilt to someone who would get more use from it.

My daughter gave me fat quarters of bee and coordinating fabrics that I combined with other bee fabric I had on hand. I participated in the May 24 GAAQG SafeHouse sewing event and completed this high-contrast quilt. Yellow, grey, black and white are a winning combination for me.

Carol Doyle

Two jelly rolls were used with coordinating fabric all from Jan Kosko. The quilting was done by Melissa Gregoire of quiltingbymelissa.com.
